T H E Society for Promoting Christian Knowledge were for many Years engaged in carrying on such Designs as they judged might promote the Interests of true Religion, and the Honour of Almighty GOD, by whose Blessing this good Work has been continually prospering in their Hands; but finding that their Designs were not so generally known as they could wish, and consequently not so much encouraged as it was presumed they would be, when further known; they resolved not only to publish an Account of them, but also to communicate to the World, from year to year, their Proceedings, and the State of their Affairs.

THIS SOCIETY consists partly of SUBSCRIBING, and partly of CORRESPONDING Members; who, before they can be chosen, must be recommended in the Form N° I. In the Appendix. Of the former you have a complete List under the same Number in the Appendix. They subscribe such Annual Sums as every one thinks proper, towards supporting the Expences of the Society; and have their regular Meetings, in which all Business relating thereunto is transacted. And as most of these, when this Society was first formed, lived in or near London, they were then, and until A. D. 1727, called RESIDING Members. The latter are such Persons in Great Britain and Ireland, and other Protestant Countries, as are chosen to correspond with the Society, on purpose to acquaint them with the State of Religion in their Neighbourhood; to suggest such Methods of doing Good as occur to them; to distribute Bibles, with such religious, as well as useful Books, as shall be approved of, and recommended by the Society; and to remit any occasional Benefactions, which they are pleased to contribute themselves, or collect from well disposed Christians.

BUT for the better understanding the Nature and Designs of this Society, it is thought convenient to premise a short Narrative of its Rise and Progress.

1698. — It was about the latter End of the Year 1698, when a few Gentlemen formed themselves into a Voluntary Society: and as such, they with Unanimity and Zeal went on together in promoting the real and practical Knowledge of true Religion, by such Methods as appeared to them, from time to time, to be most most conducive to that End, till towards the Conclusion of the Year 1701; when, at their Instance, 1701.

a Charter was obtained from King WILLIAM III. whereby all the then Subscribing Members of this Society, with other Persons of Distinction in Church and State, were Incorporated for the better carrying On of that Branch of their Designs which related to the Plantations, Colonies, and Factories beyond the Seas, belonging to the Kingdom of England.

Of the Incorporated Society for Propagation of the Gospel in Foreign Parts.

BUT their Charter being limited to Foreign Parts, and the Business of that Corporation being hitherto confined to the British Plantations in America, most of the Original Members of our Voluntary Society still continued to carry on, in that Capacity, their more extensive Designs for advancing the Honour of GOD, and the Good of Mankind, by promoting Christian Knowledge, both at Home and in other Parts of the World, by the best Methods that should offer. They are therefore a Society distinct from that Corporation, and are known by the Name of the Society for Promoting Christian Knowledge.

The Incorporated Society being limited to the British Plantations, the Original Members continue as a Voluntary Society.

THEIR principal Methods were the same as they had been before. The FIRST was to procure and encourage the erecting of CHARITY-SCHOOLS in all Parts of the Kingdom: and, that those Schools might answer the true Purposes for which they were erected, the Society have not been wanting (in their Correspondence with such of their Members as have been concerned in the Support and Management thereof) to recommend at all Times that, together with Religious and Useful Instruction, Care should be taken, and all proper Means used to inure the Children of the Poor to Industry and Labour, that so they may become become good Christians, loyal and useful Subjects, and be willing as well as fit to be employed, not only in Trades or Services, but also in Husbandry, Navigation, or any other Business that shall be thought of most Use and Benefit to the Publick. With these Views the Society printed and dispersed such a Set of Rules for the good Order and Government of these Schools as had been approved of by the Archbishops and Bishops, who directed that the same should be observed within their respective Dioceses. What Care they have taken, and what they have done in these Particulars, will appear from N^o II. in the Appendix.

Bibles, Prayer-Books, &c. dispersed.

ANOTHER Method was to disperse, both at Home and Abroad, Bibles, Prayer-Books, and divers Sorts of Religious Tracts: and accordingly they have, by the Assistance of their Members, dispersed an incredible Number of them, in such a Manner as they have Reason to hope has tended to the great Increase of the Knowledge and Practice of our holy Religion. These Books and Tracts (of which there is a Catalogue in the Appendix, N^o III.) are to be had by their own Members on the Terms there set down.

THESE are the General Designs of this Society: and they have hitherto been enabled, by their own Annual Subscriptions, and the Legacies or other casual Benefactions of well disposed Persons, to raise a Fund sufficient to carry them on successfully from Year to Year at a very considerable Expence: and they still trust to the Blessing of GOD, and the Zeal of their Members, that such good Works will never fail to flourish and abound for lack of Liberal Supplies from Charitable Christians.

BESIDE

BESIDE these General Designs, the Society undertook in the Year 1710 the Management of such Charities as were or should be put into their Hands for the Support and Enlargement of the PROTESTANT MISSION, then maintained by the King of Denmark at Tranquebar in the EAST-INDIES, for the Conversion of the Heathens in those Parts. Accordingly they, from time to time, assisted the Missionaries there with Money, a Printing Press, Paper, and other Necessaries, till the Year 1728; when, upon a Proposal made by the Reverend Mr Schultz, one of the Danish Missionaries, to remove to Fort St George, and there begin a new Mission, for the Conversion of the Heathens at Madras, the Society, trusting to the Goodness and Blessing of Almighty GOD, engaged for the Support of the same, though at an Expence that did then far exceed their Ability; which Expence has been since greatly increased by an Addition of Missionaries, as well as the Enlargement of the Mission to Cudulore near Fort St David, another English Settlement; by the Erection of a Mission and School at Calcutta in Bengal, for the Instruction of Children in Writing, Reading, and the Principles of Christianity; and lately by the Establishment of another Mission at Tirutschinapally, the Capital of the Kingdom of Madura, an inland Country in East India. However, the Society cheerfully rely upon the same Wise and Gracious Providence, which has hitherto wonderfully blessed this and all their other Undertakings, to raise up such a true Christian Spirit, as will abundantly supply all their Wants; such a Spirit, as shewed itself in the late Reverend Mr Ziegenhagen, German Chaplain to His Majesty Majesty, and the late Mr Professor Francke, of Hall in Saxony, and still animates his worthy Successor Mr Professor Freylinghausen, whose Remittances towards carrying on so pious and glorious a Design continue large and constant. The present State of this Mission may be seen in the Appendix N° IV. together with an Account of the Benefactions received, at the End of N° V.

1720. In the Year 1720, the Society extended their Regard to the Greek Church in Palestine, Syria, Mesopotamia, Arabia, and Egypt. To this End they published Proposals for Printing here, with a new Set of Types, the New Testament and Psalter, in Arabick: and were enabled, by the Blessing of God, on the Recommendation of the Bishops, joined to the Charity and Zeal of their own Members, to procure an Edition of above 6,000 Psalters, and 10,000 Testaments, as also of 5,000 Catechetical Instructions, with an Abridgment of the History of the Bible annexed, at so large an Expence as the Sum of 2,976*l.* 1*s.* 6½*d.*; to which His late Majesty King George I. was a bountiful Contributor, by a gracious Benefaction of Five Hundred Pounds. 5,898 Psalters, 4,246 New Testaments, and 2,248 Catechetical Instructions, with the Abridgment aforesaid, have been already sent to those Parts, into Persia by means of their Correspondents in Russia, or into India through the Hands of their Missionaries; and the rest are reserved to be sent as Occasion shall offer.

New Testaments, Psalters, Catechism, and Abridgment of the History of the Bible, printed in Arabick.

1725. THE Society having had the Pleasure to see the Success of the Endeavours used in many Towns and Villages for employing the Poor and their Children, by setting up WORK-HOUSES, that nothing might be wanting to encourage the Prosecution secution of so useful a Design, they caused in the Year 1725 a Collection of the best Accounts of such Workhouses to be published; which was reprinted with very large Additions, in 1733; in order to recommend and forward, throughout the Kingdom, the Execution of the same Scheme, wherein a particular Regard ought always to be had to such an Education of poor Children, as may, by bringing them up in the Faith, Knowledge, and Obedience of the Gospel, prove, through the Grace of God, the most effectual Means to make them useful Members of the Community, as well as truly happy in the Life that now is, and in that which is to come.

Workhouses
recommended.

In the Beginning of the Year 1732, the Society, when they heard the melancholy Account of the Sufferings of the Protestants in Saltzburg, having first obtained His Majesty's Leave, resolved upon doing all that lay in their Power to raise Collections for their persecuted Brethren. To this End, in June the same Year, they published An Account of the Sufferings of the persecuted Protestants in the Archbishoprick of Saltzburg, &c. and afterwards published A further Account of their Sufferings, &c. with an Extract of the Journals of M. Von Reck, the Commissary of the first Transport of Saltzburgers to Georgia, and of the Ministers that accompanied them thither, 1733. These Accounts, being enforced by the generous Example of many Noble and Honourable Persons, as also by liberal Contributions, and earnest Exhortations from the Right Reverend the Bishops, and their Clergy, had, through God's Blessing, so good an Effect upon the Minds of charitable and well-disposed Christians of every Rank and Denomination, that the Society, besides making many large Remittances to Germany, were enabled to send over to the English Colony in Georgia in the Years 1733, 1734, 1735, and 1741, Four Transports, consisting of more than two Hundred Protestant Emigrants, chiefly Saltzburgers; who, with two Missionaries and a Schoolmaster, settled by themselves at Ebenezer upon such Lands as were assigned to them by the Trustees for Establishing the said Colony.

THE great Expence of these Transports, and the many extraordinary Charges that were necessary for the Support and Encouragement of this Infant Settlement, together with 100 l. a Year as a Salary for their Two Missionaries and Schoolmaster, had so far reduced the Charities belonging to this Branch of the SOCIETY'S Designs, that they had nothing left to answer any future Wants and Contingencies, excepting 2500 l. New South Sea Annuities, which had been purchased as a standing Fund for paying the aforesaid Annual Salary to the Missionaries and Schoolmaster. But the lowering of public Interest so affected the Society, that they knew not how to make good this Annual Salary, towards which they continued to receive little or no Assistance. Being desirous, however, that this good Work should not fail for want of Support, they, out of the Money raised by the Annual Subscriptions of their Members and other Benefactions, purchased £833 : 6 : 8 New South Sea Annuities to be added to that Fund; trusting that the good Providence of God, which hath hitherto wonderfully blessed all their Endeavours, would raise them up Benefactors to supply what might on this Account be wanting towards the several Branches of their charitable Designs.

IN

IN the Year 1743, the Society undertook a new Proposal for Edition of the Bible in the Welsh Language, with the Printing the Common Prayer, and Psalms in Metre: and finished Bible, &c. in it in 1748, by an Impression of Fifteen Thousand Co- the Welsh pies, which they dispersed in the most prudent, useful Language. 1743. and extensive Manner they could. But such was the Zeal and Thirst of good Christians throughout Wales for having the Holy Scriptures in that Language, (wherein alone they could possibly read them) that this Impression, large as it was, fell exceedingly short of the universal Demand that was made for it. For which Reason the Society, from a compassionate and Christian Regard to their Wants, put into the Press another Edition of the Bible, consisting of the same 1752. Number of Copies; as likewise of Five Thousand New Testaments, and as many Common Prayer Books in the same Language. This second Edition was also, by the Blessing of God, happily finished, and distributed; since which Time the Society, at the earnest 1768. Desire of the Natives of Wales, undertook a Third Edition of the Old and the New Testaments, in a large Octavo Size, with the Marginal References; and Twenty Thousand Copies were printed, with a larger Letter than that which was used in the former Editions. The Charge of this Impression was so great, that the Society, besides sinking all the Fund which they had in hand towards that Design, incurred a Debt of above Two Thousand Pounds: And though the latter is at present discharged, it is expected that all Persons who apply for Books will be punctual and expeditious in their Payments for the same, that the Society may the sooner replace the Stock, in order to answer any future Demands of the Principality.

IN the Year 1752, the Society accepted a Trust from the Rev. Mr Hartshorne, Rector of Bresely, Salop, who, commiserating the spiritual Wants of the Off-Islands of Scilly, made them an Offer of 200*l.* towards sending a Deacon to Tresco, together with 50*l.* towards erecting a Library for his Use. But that Sum being inadequate to the Purpose, nothing was done in this Business till the Year 1765, when, deviating a little from the original Plan, they opened Schools in each of the Off-Islands. Sensible however that this was by no Means a sufficient Provision for the religious Instruction of the Inhabitants, the Society have since resumed the former Plan, and having published an Account of the State of Religion in those Islands, they received such Encouragement and Assistance, that they carried their pious and charitable Purpose into Execution. But their late Missionary's ill State of Health having obliged him to quit the Islands, the Intentions of the Society were for some time retarded. They have now engaged another Missionary, who is gone to Tresco. He has been very strongly recommended to the Society, and there is great Reason to hope that he will execute the Office he has undertaken with Diligence and Zeal. See Appendix, N^o IV.

In the Year 1763, the Society gave out Proposals for Printing Bibles, Common Prayers, and other Religious Books in the Vulgar Tongue of the Isle of Mann; and, by the Encouragement they met with, were enabled to print and disperse gratis among the Inhabitants 2000 Church Catechisms, 1200 Christian Monitors, 2000 Lewis's Exposition, 1000 Copies of the New Testament in Octavo, 1550 Common Prayers in the same Size, and 1000 in Twelves. They have likewise printed 2000 Copies of the Old Testament in Octavo, together with the like Number of the New, the former Impression not having been by any means sufficient to answer the Demands of the People; and intend to proceed in this charitable Work, and to supply the Isle of Mann with other good Books and Tracts, or with new Editions of such as have been already published for their Use. The present State of this Work, may be seen in the Appendix, N^o IV.

BEFORE we conclude this general Account, it may not be improper to mention some very considerable and standing Benefactions to this Society.

1. THE first is a most generous Legacy of Four Mrs Palmer's Legacy of 4000 l. in 1728. Thousand Pounds, which was left to them by Mrs Elizabeth Palmer in 1728, and is still preserved entire in the Publick Funds; viz. 2800 l. in New South Sea Annuities, and 1200 l. in South Sea Stock; the Interest of it only being from year to year applied to such Branches of their Designs as most need it.

2. THE second is a free Gift in the Year 1734, by The Gifts of Mr Edwin Belke, a Gentleman of Kent. Mr Edwin Belke, a Gentleman of Kent, who left to the Society Ten Acres of Land in Romney Marsh in Kent, now let at 10 l. per Annum, free of all Taxes and other Deductions; and likewise 1050 l. 1734. New South Sea Annuities, towards defraying the Expence of distributing, gratis, Bibles, New Testaments, and other Religious Books, under the Inspection of the Society.

THE same Gentleman did also, in the Year 1737, 1737. give the Society Eighty Pounds New South Sea Annuities; the Dividends whereof are to be laid out from time to time (at the Direction of the Society) in Books for propagating the Christian Religion in the East-Indies, or other Parts of the World.

3. THE

Rev. Dr Carter's Legacy.
1746.

3. THE next is a Legacy of the Reverend Doctor Thomas Carter, formerly Vice-Provost of Eton, whose Executors (besides the Payment of 436 l. 3 s. 9 $\frac{1}{2}$ d. in Money) transferred to the Society 295 l. 5 s. 11 d. in New South Sea Annuities, and 110 l. in Bank Stock. The former of these Articles has been since made up 300 l. and the latter 200 l. for a Fund to answer, by the Annual Interest thereof, the Uses directed by the Testator's Will, particularly that of printing or publishing, in the Eastern Languages, Bibles, Old and New Testaments, or what Part thereof the Society shall judge proper.

Mr Percivall.
1760.

4. The fourth is a Legacy of Samuel Percivall, Esq; of Pendarves in Cornwal, of 1000 l. which was bequeathed to the Reverend Dr William Stackhouse, and Mr James Dunn, in Trust only and for the entire Benefit of promoting the Propagation of Christian Knowledge in foreign Parts: Which Sum the said Trustees paid to the Society on the above mentioned Trust; and they have appropriated it to the Support of the Protestant Mission in the East Indies.

1762.

5. The last is a generous Benefaction of 600 l. from an unknown Hand by the Secretary, which, according to the Direction of the Donor, has been laid out in the Purchase of 700 l. New South Sea Annuities, and added to the Fund for the Support of the East India Mission.

THESE are the general Designs wherein the Society are at present engaged; the particular State whereof will be published every Year; and what it now is, together with their Receipts and Disbursements from the former Audit, 16 April, 1778, to their late Audit, 16 April, 1779, may be seen in the Appendix, N° V.

The

The TREASURERS of this SOCIETY.

THE Rev. Dr FINCH, Rector of St Michael, Cornhill, is Treasurer for all Benefactions to the Designs of the SOCIETY in general.

HENRY HOARE Esq; Banker in Fleetstreet, is Treasurer to the Protestant Mission in the East-Indies.

ROBERT GOSLING Esq; Banker in Fleetstreet, is Treasurer for all Quarterly Subscriptions, and also for all Remittances for Packets of Books sent to any Members.

The Rev. MICHAEL HALLINGS is Secretary to the Society.

Mr JOHN ROBINSON Clerk and Messenger.

Letters may be directed to the Reverend Michael Hallings, at the Society's House, N^o 5, in Bartlett's Buildings, Holborn.

WHEREAS the necessary Affairs of the Society do often call both their Secretary and Clerk abroad, it is hereby desired of all Members, or their Friends, who have any Business with them, that they would come, or send to the Society's House, N^o 5, in Bartlett's Buildings, Holborn, between the Hours of nine in the Morning and two in the Afternoon, where Attendance will be given every Day, excepting Saturday.

N. B. Tuesday is the only Day whereon (according to the Standing Orders of the Society) their Committee meet to give Directions for answering the Letters received, and for sending any Packet that shall be desired.

N^o II.

THAT the Charity Schools might answer the true Purpose for which they were erected, the Society have, in their Circular Letters to their Correspondents, recommended that, with their Instructions in Religion and Piety, they should join all proper Methods of inuring the Children to Labour and Industry; and in their Circular Letter A.D. 1712, they have these Words:

Circular
Letter.
1712.

“AND because some have apprehended, that the “placing so many of them out Apprentices to Ma“nual Trades, as is now generally done, may oc“casion, in Time, a Want of Servants, especially “in Husbandry; the Society recommend it to your “Consideration, whether the bringing up the Chil“dren to Husbandry, or putting them out to Ser“vices, at Sea, or in sober Families, may not be “more useful to the Publick, and no less beneficial
“to themselves.”

IN the Year 1719, they recommended the same Thing to their Correspondents, in the following Words:

1719.

“NEXT to improving the Minds of the Poor
“in all necessary Christian Knowledge, the Society
“have desired, and do again earnestly intreat all “their Correspondents, to use their utmost Endeavours to get some kind of Labour added to the “Instruction given to Children in the Charity “Schools;

“ Schools; as Husbandry in any of its Branches,
 “ Spinning, Sewing, Knitting, or any other useful “ Employment; to which the particular Manufac“ tures of their respective Countries may lead them:
 “ This will bring them to an Habit of Industry,
 “ as well as prepare them for the Business by which “ they are afterwards to subsist in the World, and “ effectually obviate an Objection against the Cha“ rity Schools, that they tend to take poor Children “ off from those servile Offices which are necessary
 “ in all Communities, and for which the wise Go“ vernor of the World has by his Providence de“ signed them.

“ THE best Means of employing the Poor has “ always had a Share in the Thoughts of the wisest “ Men in this Kingdom; and the present State of “ Affairs, with respect to our Trade, seems to re“ quire a Continuance of your Care and Applica“ tion, to promote those Employments among the “ Children educated in Charity Schools, which may “ be most for the Service of the Publick; so that “ beside Reading, Writing, and Arithmetick, and “ instructing them in the Principles and Rules of “ our holy Religion, they ought also to be inured
 “ to some sort of profitable Labour or Business.

“ It has been observed by a worthy Correspond“ ing Member, that where, in the Want of other “ Labour, the Children in the Country go a Mile “ or two to School, even that has contributed to “ make them robust and active; and that Gar“ dening, Plowing, Harrowing, or other servile La“ bour every other Day for their Parents, has been “ no Prejudice to their Progress in Learning.

“ IT is not easy to prescribe such an Employ as “ would suit all Parts of the Kingdom; and there“ fore it must be left to the Prudence of those who “ are intrusted with the Management of Charity
“ Schools, to chuse such Employments for the Chil“ dren, as they shall judge to be most practicable in “ their respective Places; and if any in your Neigh“ bourhood have been so happy as to fall into a pro“ per Method for employing poor Children, you are “ desired to signify it in as particular a manner as you “ can; that when the Society are furnished with a “ greater Variety of such Methods, they may be com“ municated to the Publick for general Practice.

“ AND though the Manner of employing the Poor
“ may, at first, be attended with some Difficulty, by “ reason of the Variety of Manufactures in the King“ dom, and the Materials necessary for them, which “ all Places do not equally afford; yet wherever an “ Attempt has been made (though by Means perhaps “ at first not appearing very probable) it has seldom “ failed of producing some good Effect: for notwith“ standing the Produce of the Manufactures, wherein
“ the Poor are employed, should happen to be but “ small, yet if they are kept from Idleness and Beg“ gary, and inured to a sober and industrious way of “ Living, the good Effects thereof, as well to them“ selves as to the Publick, will fully compensate all
“ the Pains that shall be taken therein.

Circular
Letter
1729.

“ THE general Usefulness of Husbandry to this “ Nation, the real Want there has been of Persons “ to be employed in it, and the Mortality that has “ lately happened in many Counties, especially “ among

“ among the lower and more laborious sort of “ People, are, in the Opinion of the Society, all of “ them, very good Reasons to engage their Mem“ bers to use their utmost Endeavours that poor “ Children may be bound out Apprentices to that “ Business; which would silence one of the most “ popular Clamours that has been raised against “ Charity Schools. This Concern therefore, which “ so nearly affects the common Interest of our “ Country, is particularly recommended by the So“ ciety to all their Members.”

FROM these Extracts it will appear, how careful this Society has always been to obviate the common Objections made against the Charity Schools, that they only breed up Children in Idleness and Pride; and it must not be omitted, that as early as the Year 1712, they particularly recommended,
 “ That however these Children are disposed of, it “ will be very necessary beforehand to teach them
 “ that great Lesson of true Humility, which our “ Saviour has prescribed to all that will be his Dis“ ciples; lest the Advantages they receive from a “ pious Education, should incline them to put too “ great a Value upon themselves; and therefore “ that the Masters be often put in mind of guard“ ing the Children under their Care, as much as “ possible, against such dangerous Conceits; and in “ order thereunto, to instruct them very carefully
 “ in the Duties of Servants, and Submission to “ Superiors.”

AND knowing that it is of the highest Importance to the Welfare of the Charity Schools, to remove all Occasion of Complaint against them as Nurseries of Disaffection to the Government, They acquainted their Members in Town and Country,

 " That his Grace the Archbishop of Canterbury
 " having heard some Complaints against the Con" duct of certain Teachers in these Schools, on this
 " Head, did, in 1716, write a Letter to the Trustees
 " of the Schools in and about London, earnestly ex-
 " horting them rigorously to animadvert upon all,
 " whether Children or Teachers, who either appear,
 " or suffer them to appear at any time in publick,
 " to affront the Government, and bear a Part in those
 " Tumults and Riots, which are so great a Scandal,
 " as well as Prejudice, to the good Order and Peace
 " of the Realm. And likewise, if there be any Ca- " techisms or Institutions taught in any of these
 " Schools, that meddle with political or party Prin- " ciples, that they ought immediately to be thrown
 " aside, as pernicious to the original Design of these
 " pious Nurseries."

SOME time after this, his Grace, in a particular manner, recommended it to the Trustees of the Charity Schools in and about London; "To require
 " all the Masters and Mistresses under their Di" rection, not only to take the Oaths to the Go" vernment before their Admission, but at the " Time of their Admission to subscribe to some such
 " solemn Promise, or Declaration, as the follow" ing, viz. That they do heartily acknowledge his Ma- " jesty King GEORGE, to be the only lawful and " rightful King of these Realms; and will to the " utmost of their Power educate the Children com- " mitted to their Charge, in a true Sense of their " Duty to him as such: That they will not, by any
 " Words or Actions, do any thing whereby to lessen
 " their Esteem of, or their Obedience to the present
 Govern-

*" Government: That upon all publick Days, when " their Children may be likely to appear among any
 " disorderly Persons, they will do their best to keep them
 " in, and severely punish them, if they shall hear of " their running into any Tumults, or publick Meet" ings, contrary to the good Order of such Schools
 " and Scholars."*

SEVERAL other Prelates have earnestly pressed the like Exhortations, in their Sermons at the Anniversary Meetings of the Charity Schools, as well as on other Occasions; and the Society think it incumbent on them to use all their Interest to procure a general Conformity to his Grace's and their Lordship's Sentiments in this Matter, as of the last Importance to the Welfare of the Charity Schools; and therefore intreat all their Correspondents to do their utmost to remove all Occasions of Complaint, as they value the Prosperity of these Schools.

A PROPOSAL made by the SOCIETY to the Trustees of the CHARITY-SCHOOLS, for adding Work to the Learning usually given to the Children.

THE Instructing of Youth, and Providing for the Poor and Impotent, are such obvious Duties, that they meet with universal Approbation; but the most proper Means to attain that good End are often disputed.

THE Erecting of Charity Schools has most certainly laid a good Foundation for the first; and the late excellent Law relating to Work-Houses, has put it in the Power of every Parish in a much better Manner to provide for the latter.

As to the Charity Schools, it must needs be acknowledged, that those excellent Persons who first formed, formed, and they who have since conducted that good Work, ought ever to be mentioned with Honour: And now, that such Schools are established in most Parts of the Kingdom, it is much to be wished that some Means could be contrived to render them still more useful, and effectually to answer the good Purposes of their Institution.

It is conceived, that if the Children educated in Charity Schools were employed in some such Business as they are capable of, it would be no Hindrance to their Learning, and might have a very good Effect, by inuring them early to Industry; but what that Employment should be, and the Manner of conducting it, must be left to the Managers of the several Schools, who are the best Judges of what is most proper and convenient to be done.

SUPPOSE England and Wales to contain Ten thousand Parishes, and that but Ten Persons in every Parish, one with another, were by some Method employed, who were perfectly idle before, then the whole number of Persons so set to work would be One Hundred thousand, who, if they work but 300 Days in a Year, and one with another earned but a Half-Penny a Day, the Produce of their Labour at the Year's end would amount to 62,500 Pounds.

THE Spinning of coarse Wool, Flax, or Hemp, is a Thing easily learnt, and the Waste which will be always made by Beginners will not amount to much. And if it were possible so to contrive it, that the Parents of the Children might reap some Advantage from what is so earned, it would be a great Inducement for them to keep the Children to their Business; and if the Undertaking succeeded, it is to be hoped, that many good People would send in coarse Materials to be worked up for the Benefit of the School.

It

Coarse Wool,
Flax, or Hemp
to be spun in the Charity
Schools.

IT is impossible to give minute and particular Directions for conducting this Undertaking, and therefore that must be left to the Managers, who will best judge what is necessary to be done; but till the School is very well got into some Method, the best way will most certainly be to keep the Business in a small compass.

THO' the Spinning of Wool, and Flax, or Hemp, is proposed, as most advantageous, yet where this is found impracticable, the Children should be employed in some other Way, and always have what they earn for their Encouragement: that would make them diligent, and induce all good Christians to assist in an Undertaking, which so much conduces to the Glory of God, and the Good of Mankind.

There having sometimes happened much Difficulty in obtaining a Legacy given to the Charity-Schools, by reason of some Defect in expressing such Bequest; it seems convenient to set down how such Legacy may be so expressed, as to prevent any Scruple about Paying it; which may be done in this Manner, viz.

ITEM, I A. B. do give and bequeath unto
 G. H. of the Sum of Pounds,
 to the Intent, and on Trust, that he do pay the same to the Treasurers for the Time being of the Charity-School, for Teaching [poor Children, or poor Boys, or poor Girls,] to Read, &c. in the Parish of in the City of or in the Use of the said School.

A Letter

 O F
DR EDMUND GIBSON,
 Late Lord Bishop of LONDON,
 TO THE
CLERGY OF HIS DIOCESE,

Dated Whiteball, April 3, 1740.

GOOD BROTHER,

THE Decay of Piety and Religion, and the Increase of Sin and Vice, are so visible in our Days, notwithstanding the Endeavours of the Parochial Clergy to prevent them; that no additional Expedients ought to be omitted, which may help, in any Measure, to preserve among our People a Sense of Duty, and a Spirit of Devotion.

ONE of these Expedients is, the putting into their Hands, as Occasion shall be found, some short and plain Tracts upon Religious Subjects; such as being short, they are like to read, or may easily procure to be read to them; and being also plain, they cannot fail of understanding; and moreover, being always at hand, and read over often, they will naturally make a deeper Impression upon their Minds, than Instructions and Admonitions, either from the Pulpit, or by Word of Mouth.

It was with this View, that several Bishops, Clergymen, and other serious Persons among the Laity, did long since form themselves into a Society, for printing and dispersing such practical Tracts in great Numbers. And for the dispersing them more effectually, they have from time to time admitted, and continue to admit, several Persons in all Parts of the Kingdom, whom they call CORRESPONDING MEMBERS; and who are intitled to have a Supply of them, to be disposed of among such of the neighbouring Clergy or Laity as desire them; the Bound Books, mentioned in their Catalogue, at the prime Cost in Quires, the Society being at the Charge of Binding; and the Stitch'd Books, at one half of what is set down as the prime Cost of each; the other half of the Charge being born by the standing Subscriptions of the Members of the Society, and by other occasional Benefactions. And the Privilege of sending for and receiving those Books and small Tracts, on the Terms before mentioned, is common to all the CORRESPONDING MEMBERS, as such, whether they be SUBSCRIBERS or not; on Account of the Trouble they are content to take in answering the great Ends of the Society, by conveying their Tracts into many Hands, and on the same easy Terms; without any Advantage to themselves, besides the Pleasure of doing Good.

THIS Society has subsisted many Years, under the Name of The Society for promoting Christian Knowledge. And as, by their Endeavours in that Way, great Good has been already done to Religion, so much more would probably be done, if the Design, and their Methods of carrying it on, were more generally understood and attended to. And because some of the Clergy may not know that there is such a Society, and many others may be unacquainted with the true End and Manner of it; I desire that those in your Neighbourhood may have this Account of it communicated to them, as you have Opportunity. At the same time it is left to every one's Judgment, how far he has Occasion within his own Cure for such Assistances as these, to co-operate with his own Pastoral Labours.

I AM not without Hope, that when this Method of doing Service to Religion is known and considered, Persons who are of Ability, both among the Clergy and Laity, will be disposed to become Subscribing Members, or occasional Contributors; for the better Support of the Society in carrying on the Work, and to make the good Effects of it more and more extensive. And so, commending you and your Labours to the Blessing of God, I remain,

Sir, your faithful Friend and Brother,

EDM. LONDON.

OF THE

SOCIETY's Protestant Missions in the East Indies, for the Year 1778.

THE SOCIETY, since the Accounts which they communicated to their Members and the Public, have received several Letters from their Missionaries in the East Indies, the Substance of which is as follows.

Madras. The Reverend Messieurs Fabricius and Breithaupt, in a Letter dated in January, 1778, containing some Account of their Mission in the Course of the preceding Year, inform the SOCIETY that it having pleased God to preserve the public Tranquility and Peace in those Parts of the Country, Divine Service had been regularly performed in the Congregations; the Care of the Schools and also the inviting the Heathens to the Kingdom of CHRIST had without Impediment been continued. They had not ceased to excite the idolatrous People of that Country to Repentance, and to accept the gracious Offer of Mercy made to them in the Gospel. Therefore though they could could have given a large Account, from their Journals which they keep Year by Year, of the Conferences and Discourses they had held with the Heathens, they thought it would be superfluous, and humbly hoped that their assuring the SOCIETY that these Conferences and Discourses are never discontinued, would be sufficient, and kindly accepted instead of a prolix Narrative of them. They mention that their Portuguese Congregation had got an Increase of Eleven, and the Malabar (or Tamulian) of Thirty-six Souls, in all 47. Among these were Five Persons who had been converted by their Catechist at Velore. Children born and christened in the Portuguese Congregation were Eight, and in the Malabar Thirty-seven, together 45 Children: So that the whole Increase consisted of 92 Souls. There were deceased in the Portuguese Congregation Eleven, and in the Malabar Thirty-four; so that the Number of the born and the deceased was equal (viz.) 45. In both the Congregations 20 Couple had been married; and 62 Persons had, after particular Instruction given them, been admitted the first Time to the LORD's Supper. The Number of such Children in the Schools as are maintained at the Expence of the Mission amounted to upwards of Forty.

The Missionaries write that Madras being the chief English Settlement on that Coast, where every Thing is much dearer than in other Places, the Care which they were obliged to take for the bodily Support of the Malabar Congregation and of the many poor People belonging to it was great and burthensome, and required all the Assistance they could procure for that Purpose.

Mr Fabricius had made two Journies in the Course of the Year, one in August to Sadras, and another in September to Pullicat. In Sadras he preached two Sermons, and in Pullicat likewise two; and christened at the first Place Five, and at the last, Eighteen Children, belonging partly to the Dutch, partly to the Portuguese, and partly to the Malabar Congregation of the Dutch Church. They add farther that the Malabar Treatise composed by the Reverend Mr Swartz, the Title of which is, Dialogues between a Heathen and a Christian, shewing the whole Christian Doctrine, and the Truth of it, was last Year printed and finished; that twenty Sheets of the Malabar and English Dictionary in Quarto were printed, and that the Remainder would make three Sheets more.

Before they conclude their Letter they mention with Thankfulness the charitable Gifts and Benefactions, which had last Year been bestowed upon their Mission. Lieutenant O'Hara had given Four Pagodas and a half, and Mrs Isabella Croke Six and a half. Mr David Horne, Sergeant of Stores in Ambore, had given Forty-three Pagodas, Mr Isaac Manoury, Captain of Artillery, Fifty, and Mr Ravallet, Dutch Second at Sadras, had given Twenty-five Pagodas to the Mission, Cuddalore. The Reverend Messieurs Hutteman and Gerické, in a Letter dated January 18, 1778, assure the SOCIETY that they had endeavoured to discharge the Trust reposed in them to the best of their Power. Mr Gerické had been indefatigable in preaching the Gospel both at Home and in the Country. He had been nine Times at the Pollams, and once at Devucottab.

Seventeen adult Persons from among the Heathens had renounced Idolatry and been baptized: Eleven Papists had left that Communion and were become Protestants: And Thirty-two Children born of Christian Parents had been baptized: So that the whole Increase had been Sixty.

They conclude with saying that they will continue to study the Holy Scriptures and to preach the Gospel; and will earnestly implore the Divine Assistance to enable them to overcome the Difficulties they meet with in the Work they are engaged in, and to lead Lives worthy of so holy a Religion as the Christian.

Calcutta. The SOCIETY are happy to hear by a Letter dated January 20, 1778, that Mr Diemer had recovered his Health so

so far as to do Duty every Sunday in English and German; and that Mr Bento was much better, and discharged his Duty in the best Manner he was able. The Missionaries inform the SOCIETY that Mr Bento's last Illness obliged them to write to their Brethren at Tranquebar to desire some Assistance from them; and that they had been so kind as to send Mr Koenig for that Purpose, who went to Calcutta in April, and staid there till August; during which Time he officiated in the Portuguese Congregation. But as he could not stay any longer with them, and the Portuguese Congregation necessarily required a Fellow-Labourer to assist Mr Bento, they desired Mr Gerlach, another of the Danish Missionaries at Tranquebar, to come and assist them, who wrote them Word that he intended coming the first Opportunity. They entertain great Hopes that many of the Romish Communion will forsake their Errors, and come over to the Protestant Religion. The Romish Priests designedly keep their People in great Ignorance: otherwise they would break their Bonds asunder, and cast away their Cords from them. The Heathens want no Opportunities for their Conviction; but if they are convinced, they refuse to embrace the Christian Religion. Mr Diemer says that a Heathen Writer had been convinced of the Absurdities of his own Religion, and in plain Terms confessed, that the Christian was better. He was told that the Christian Religion afforded unspeakable Comfort and Support to all her true Votaries and Professors by encouraging them to look beyond the Grave to a better World, where they should live for ever; and that his Religion, which taught the Doctrine of the Transmigration of Souls, could give no such Comfort or Hope. This he allowed to be true. He was farther told that if he chose to change his Religion, he should be well instructed in the Christian, and that it was at least his Duty to make a Trial, and to enquire into the Doctrines of Christianity.—But he then began to smile and said, "I cannot, and will not change." He says that the common People believe a Multiplicity of Gods, and will enumerate many Gods and Goddesses with with their Generations, and declare that all Gods ought to be worshipped. But it is very difficult to determine what the Bramins believe. We had, says he, the other Day, a Conversation with a Bramin, who asserted "that the whole Universe is God—What now speaks in me is God, and what animates a Dog, is God; and when God retires out of the Dog, he must die immediately." They account God the Author of all their Immoralities and wicked Actions; and so strongly do they adhere to this Notion, that a Bramin will expressly say, "When I have an Inclination to steal, I cannot help it, because God made me so:" and when such a one is punished, he says, "I cannot help it, it was so destined." The Bramin despises all other Casts; and the lowest is despised by all.

The Veneration for the Cow and the sacred Bulls is exceedingly great among the Bengalees. The other Day, says Mr Diemer, the Leg of one of these Bulls was broken. The Beast was immediately surrounded by many hundred People, and the Bramins especially were very busy, and much concerned for the Bull. Some brought him Food, others Medicine, and others Ropes to remove him to a dry Place. Thus was the sacred Bull carried away with all possible Care, and every Method tried to recover him. But when a poor Wretch lies in the Streets, and his Distress calls aloud for the Compassion of those who pass by; if he is of a low Cast, he is entirely neglected. The merciless and haughty Bramin passes on without being affected at the Sight of such an Object of Compassion: But were he a sacred Bull, proper Care would be immediately taken of him. When a Bengalee's House takes Fire, he is obliged first to save his Cow; and though his Wife and Children should be consumed by the Fire, it signifies nothing; but if the Cow perishes in the Flames, he loses his Cast. How much Christians are indebted to the Light of the Gospel, let every one judge. He adds that the English and Portuguese Congregations are increased. In both 53 Children have been christened and 10 adult Persons. Among these last were were Four of the Bengal Cast, Two of the Malabar, One of the Malay, and Three of the Followers of Mabomet. There have been Eleven Persons converted from the Errors of Popery. So that the whole Number amounts to Seventy-four. In the English Congregation were 132 Communicants, and in the Portuguese 68: In all 200. Eighteen Couple had been married, and only Eight Persons had died. Besides the Twenty Charity Boys, Five were entirely maintained; and the Number of the Out-Scholars was increased to 116, some of whom partook of the Bounty of the Society. He says that some Christians were become earnest in their Religion; which was likely to have a happy Influence on their Fellow-Christians and likewise on the Heathens.

The Reverend Mr Swartz, in a Letter dated January Tirutshinapally 23, 1778, acquaints the SOCIETY that God had been graciously pleased to preserve him and all his Assistants in the Mission. He says that every one of the Catechists had had an Opportunity of going Abroad, and conversing with the Gentiles in the Country; that every one at that Time kept a Diary; from which it appeared that they had all been diligent in the Discharge of their Duty. They usually explained to the Gentiles the main Doctrines of the Gospel, and read to them something out of the New Testament, and other religious Books. The Heathens praised and commended the Doctrines of the Gospel, but were afraid of the Sufferings they must undergo from their Relations, in case they renounced their Idolatry. Mr Swartz sent one of the Catechists to make a Journey towards the East of Tirutshinapally, who, when he returned, told him that he had preached not only to Christians but to Heathens; and particularly what Pains he had taken in recalling one of his Friends, whom Pride and Avarice had tempted to apostatize. Another of the Natives had visited the dispersed Christians, who live in the Southern Parts of the Country, many of whom expressed a great Desire of having Teachers among them.

The

The two Catechists at Vallam had preached the Gospel with becoming Zeal, whom Mr Swartz earnestly intreated to go on, and publish the Word of God wherever they could, not regarding the Discouragements they might meet with. In their last Journey they observed how some Families consulted one with another what they should do—whether they should receive and publicly profess the true Law, (as they called it) or whether they should remain in their old Way. One of the chief Men said, “If you receive the Doctrine of the true Law, there will be none to perform the Ceremonies at the Pagode, and that will cause a great Tumult.”

Mr Swartz says that he has visited Tanjore four Times. On Sunday Morning he usually preached to the English Congregation, and after that to the Malabar People; and that he had twice prepared some People to receive the Sacrament of Baptism. He had besides conversed freely with all Ranks of Heathens, and had explained to them the Truths of natural and revealed Religion. All heard and applauded, saying, “True, what can avail all our Images, and the numberless Ceremonies performed by us! There is but one supreme Being, the Maker and Preserver of all.” But as the Worship of Images has been introduced, and is now established by long Practice, it is difficult to quit it. “In one of my first Journies, says he, I arrived at a large Place, where the Heathens celebrated a Feast—I was struck with the excessive Crowd I saw before me. I stood at some Distance from them; but was soon surrounded by a Number of People, to whom I explained the glorious Perfections of God, and remarked how absurd the Worship of Images was; how they dishonoured God by all their Idolatry, and how they enhanced their Misery. I told them at the same Time what infinite Mercy God had shewed to lost Sinners by sending them a Redeemer, and at last how they might become Partakers of the Benefit of Redemption: All seemed pleased, acknowledging their Folly, and praising the Excellency of the Christian Doctrine. Before and after Noon new

"Crowds came near. I spoke till I was quite exhausted."

Mr Swartz informs the SOCIETY that his Congregation had had an Increase of about 50; that the Schools at Tirutshinapally and Tanjore had been kept up as formerly; but that one of the Schoolmasters, Mr Aldwell, had desired Permission to lay down his Office at Tirutshinapally, and that he was gone to Madras, where he was employed as Schoolmaster with a Salary of 50*l.* sterling per Annum: And that the second Schoolmaster, Mr Wheatley, seemed likewise desirous to quit his Employment, and to follow some other Business.

Mr Swartz mentions the Arrival of Mr Poble, whom the Danish Missionaries at Tranquebar had kindly sent to his Assistance, and says that he has great Reason to be thankful to them for having done so; for that Mr Poble has not only a clear Head, but a pious Heart, and a great Desire of doing Good to the Natives; and that having been before fond of Oriental Languages, he improved so fast as to be able in three Months Time to preach in the Malabar Language; that he had made considerable Progress in the English, and could catechise in the English School: In short that his Faculties and Conduct were very promising. Mr Swartz therefore begs that the SOCIETY will be pleased to receive Mr Poble as their Missionary. The SOCIETY have likewise received a Letter from Mr Poble himself, in which he says, that as a sincere Desire of promoting Christian Knowledge had induced him to quit Tranquebar, and to go to Tirutshinapally, he hoped that the SOCIETY would approve of his having done so, and would accept him as their Missionary.

The SOCIETY have agreed to comply with the Request of Mr Swartz and Mr Poble, after being assured by the Reverend Mr Professor Freylinghausen that Mr Poble was every Way qualified for so important a Trust.

The Reverend the Danish Missionaries, in a Letter Tranquebar. dated January 30, 1778, acknowledge the Receipt of the Stores

Stores and Presents sent by the SOCIETY, all which came safe and in good Condition. They write that as their Printing-Press was in much better Order than before, they were got as far as the Second Book of Samuel in the Second Part of the Malabar Old Testament; and that besides this they had begun to print a new and correct Edition of the Malabar Hymn-Book, and of Thomas à Kempis's Imitation of Christ in Portuguese.

They mention Mr Koenig's having arrived safe from Bengal, and that they were convinced of the Necessity of sending Mr Gerlach thither, which they had determined to do as soon as any Opportunity should occur. Mr Klein, after frequent and pressing Invitations from their Friends at Ceylon to preach among them the Gospel, and to administer the Holy Sacrament, was gone there for that Purpose. They inform the SOCIETY that the Increase of their Congregation in the preceding Year was 106: Amongst them were 72 Heathens and 34 Papists. The Number of Children in their Schools both in Town and in the Country was 318. They had re-established the School at Porreiar, which had been neglected and even discontinued for some Years, and such of the Malabar Children as were capable, had an Opportunity of learning the Portuguese and German Languages.

The Ordination of their Catechist Rajappen was deferred till the Return of Mr Klein from Ceylon. They were daily occupied in preparing him for the holy Office, and his Behaviour gave them great Hopes of his proving a faithful Assistant to them.

Halle. The SOCIETY have been favoured with a Letter from the Reverend Mr Professor Freylinghausen, dated November 25, 1778, wherein he pathetically laments the Death of Mr Schoelkopf, and says that he despairs of having it soon in his Power to recommend such another to the SOCIETY. He is however happy to find that the Danish Missionaries, although some of them are old and infirm, have been so kind as to permit Mr Poble to go to Tirutshinapally napally to the Assistance of Mr Swartz, and Mr Gerlach to Calcutta to officiate in the Portuguese Congregation.

The Stores and Presents to the Missionaries have been sent this Year, as usual, through the continued Favour of the Honourable East India Company.

SETTLED AT

E B E N E Z E R in G E O R G I A.

THE SOCIETY have received a Letter from the Reverend Mr Triebner, dated the 4th of March, 1779, containing the following Particulars, That having for two Years and a half been under a Tyrannical Government and particular Oppressions, he had no Opportunity to write to the SOCIETY; that during the Rebellion, he and his Adherents had been exposed to many Indignities and Dangers, that he had been looked upon as a Ring-leader of the Tories in the District where he lived, and had been three Times obliged to pay a Fine of Forty Shillings; and that he and fourteen of his Hearers on refusing to take an Oath of Abjuration were made Prisoners; that on the 5th of October, 1777, he was carried before a Committee of twelve Men as an Enemy to the State, and because he refused taking the Oath, he was declared a Prisoner of War; he was at length forced by one

one of the rebel Commanders, who held a drawn Sword over him, to take the Oath. At length, says he, the Time of Deliverance drew near—His Majesty's Troops arrived at the End of the Year, and by the Blessing of God, they, under the Command of Colonel Campbell, obtained a complete Victory over the Georgian and Carolinan Rebels.

As to his Labours in the Ministry, he says he goes on as formerly; that he preaches thrice a Week, and instructs Children in the Principles of the Christian Religion—That in the Course of two Years and a half Ninety had been baptized, Forty buried, and Twenty Couple married.

In another Letter dated July 20, 1779, Mr Triebner writes, That notwithstanding the Troubles and Tumults in those Parts, Divine Service had, as usual, been uninterruptedly performed, and that his Congregation had not for many Years lost one Sunday's preaching; so that such as were willing to attend, could never complain of having had no Opportunity.

The Reverend Mr Pasche having acquainted the SOCIETY that he had some German Bibles and Hymn-Books to spare, and likewise some German Books and Tracts published from the Manuscripts of the late Reverend Mr Ziegenhagen, which he believed would be very useful to Mr Triebner's Congregation at Ebenezer, but which, on account of their late Distresses, they are not able to pay for, he was desired to take the Trouble of sending them, and the SOCIETY readily engaged to pay the Price of them, amounting to £13 10s.

SOCIETY'S MISSION to the Islands of Scilly.

THE Reverend Mr Troutbeck, the SOCIETY'S Missionary, has acquainted the SOCIETY with his safe Arrival at St Mary's, where he was received and treated with the utmost Civility by the Reverend Mr Lewis. During his Stay at St Mary's he officiated in Mr Lewis's Church, where, he says, was a large Congregation, which far exceeded his Expectation. He finds that Mr Lewis keeps good Order in the Schools, and has, he is told, greatly reformed the Islanders since he came among them.

In a subsequent Letter he informs the SOCIETY that the Inhabitants of Tresco received him courteously, and expressed their Gratitude to the SOCIETY for their Goodness in providing spiritual Food for their Souls, which they were not able of themselves to provide.

He says, they behave very respectfully to him, and promise to do every Thing in their Power to make his Residence among them agreeable, and by improving under his Ministry, to convince the SOCIETY that their pious Designs in sending a Minister among them shall not be frustrated. Their Attendance on Divine Service is constant, and their Behaviour devout. He observes that they do not want Understanding in regard to Traffick, but as to Religion they are very ignorant. Considering the Depravity of human Nature, it cannot reasonably be expected that such a Set of poor People as they are, who have always lived in a State of Anarchy, according to the Bent of their own Inclination and Humour, without either Law or Controul, or any to instruct them in the Ways of Religion and Virtue, should have any perfect Knowledge of their Duty to God or Man.

Mr Troutbeck is informed that since the Establishment of the Schools, many hundred Children have been taught to read, and to say the Catechism, who, without such Provision for their Instruction, would never have known a Letter. He says there are about a hundred Children now at the Schools, some of whom can read the Bible, and say the Church-Catechism much better than he expected, being chiefly young Ones, and many cannot go to School for Want of Cloaths.

He says that all Provisions, except Corn, Potatoes and fresh Fish, are scarce and dear, and that Butchers Meat, for Want of sufficient and proper Feeding, is very bad, there being no Hay produced in any of the Off-Islands, and only Corn enough to supply the Inhabitants with Bread. The Islanders seldom eat any Flesh Meat, but live upon Fish and Potatoes all the Year; their Houses are mean, and but little better than Stables.

Mr Troutbeck writes that on the 7th of March last there were nine poor Men drowned going out to Sea to pilot in some Ships, who have left seven Widows and twenty-eight Children in the greatest Distress: which, he says, often happens there, as the Men in Winter have no other Way of getting a Living, than by piloting Ships: So for a little Gain are obliged to run great Hazards. He went to see the Houses of these poor Widows, which he found so miserably bad, that they might as well almost lodge out of Doors. They had nothing but Straw to lie upon, without any Kind of Bed-Cloaths, and nothing to subsist on but a Kind of Shell-Fish, which they gather from the Rocks. He adds that in all likelihood these miserable Creatures must perish in Winter, being confined upon a small desolate Island, where they have no Chance to beg, because very few Strangers come among them, and their Neighbours are not able to relieve them.

The SOCIETY having some Time ago been informed by the Reverend Mr Lewis that there was a very good House at Tresco, to be either let or sold, have taken it for Mr Troutbeck to reside in; and as he writes Word that he finds it comfortable and convenient, the SOCIETY will either take a Lease of it, or else purchase it for the Residence of their Missionary.

THE SOCIETY have given Directions for sending over to the Isle of Mann from Whitehaven all the remaining Books of the Manks Impression, and the Lord Bishop of Sodor and Mann has appointed three of his Clergy (one at each End of the Isle and a third about the Centre) to receive them from Whitehaven, and to deliver them to their Brethren, the other parochial Ministers, who are to distribute them to their respective Parishioners, according to Directions given them for that Purpose by the Bishop. After the ensuing Distribution, Lists will be made out of such Books as remain in the Hands of the Clergy, and delivered to his Lordship, who has condescendingly undertaken the Charge of the future Disposal of them as Occasion shall require.

I desire may be applied towards carrying on the Charitable Designs of the said Society.

N. B. The Variation in this Form of a LEGACY from that formerly printed, is made necessary, on Account of some late unhappy Mistakes in Wills; by which some Legacies have been lost to the Society, and the good Intentions of the Testators have been entirely defeated; because the Sums bequeathed to the Society have been ordered to be raised, or paid out of Lands, or real Estates, which is not now permitted by Law.

✂ If the Benefactor is pleased to restrain his Charity to any particular Branch of the SOCIETY's Designs, he may add, either in Great Britain, Palestine, the East-Indies, Georgia, the Scilly Islands, the Manks, or Welch Impression of the Holy Scriptures.
